Only last week the frogelephant—or the elephant-frog—exploded. The republican party for years succeeded in deceiving the country. Now it is successfully deceiving itself. In its platform it offers pulchritudinous promise, but with vacuous intent. It promises the country in the main what the democratic party has already done or is in the process of doing, saving always the bogus god protection. It has cloaked its iniquity with a judicial robe, but the cloven hoof of special interests still protrudes.

"The board of directors has sat in Chicago and again resolved that they are the country. They have adopted the doctrine of foreordination and predestination, but have made it applicable only to themselves.

Says Greed Taints Ambition.

"Ambition is a noble attribute, but when it is adulterated with greed. a cataclysm is inevitable. We have recently witnessed the painful spectacle of two groups of men trading principles like competitors in a fish market in the hope that some compromise would win public support. They have not come together—they have fallen out over the 'swag.' For the sake of victory many of these men, essentially opposite in principles, have been willing to become friends with false masks. The result is inevitable. "He democratic party has proven itself a party of principles, a party of constructive ability, a party of performance."
